Before the first December square

Two short conversations for the opening of Advent 2026.

Read the prompts aloud. Anyone may draw, dictate or pass.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 29

Choose a moment to practise patience.

Imagine two people speaking at once. Invite one to finish, then ask the other what they wanted to say. Try the invitation aloud before writing your own.

A moment when waiting might be hard this week:

Words we can use to give someone a turn:

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 30

Notice one small act of kindness.

Think of something concrete, such as a chair pulled up for a late arrival. Describe what happened. Then choose a small kindness for tomorrow.

Someone made room for another person by:
